Enthusiastic and self-motivated aspiring web designer, eager to kickstart my career in front-end web development. Inspired to bring my passion for creating stunning websites and improving user experiences to a dynamic team. I possess a keen eye for detail and a strong drive for excellence. I aim to contribute effectively to every project undertaken, drawing inspiration from successful endeavors. Excited to learn, grow, and make meaningful contributions to the field of web development.

Projects

Chat app UI

- I developed a chat app UI using React.js and Material-UI, showcasing my expertise in front-end development and UI design.
- This project demonstrates my ability to create sleek, responsive interfaces with modern design principles. While the backend is still in development, I've gained valuable experience in React.js and Material-UI, laying the groundwork for future integration
